In the event that vacancies exist for both Director and Alternate, the person receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected Director, and the person receiving the next largest number of votes shall be elected Alternate. Should only one position be vacant, the person receiving the most votes shall be elected to that position. Voting may be by mail unless a special meeting of the membership or another method is called for.

ARTICLE V - MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Frequency of Regular Meetings: The Board of Directors will meet semi-annually whenever possible, including immediately after the annual membership meeting, at such place and time as the Board of Directors shall designate. Immediately after each annual meeting of the members, the directors elected at such meeting and those holding over shall hold a meeting for the purpose of electing officers as hereinafter provided and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. No prior notice of such meeting shall be required to be given to the directors.

Section 2. Special Meetings: Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of at least two directors, or at the President's discretion. These special meetings may be held at such reasonable times and places as the President may determine and shall be limited to only those items of business described in the notice of such special meeting.

Section 3. Notices: No notice need be given for a meeting held immediately after each annual meeting as described in Section 1. above. Notice of special meetings must be given at least two days prior to the time of the meeting and shall include all business to be considered at such meeting. Attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice thereof.

Section 4. Quorum: A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum. Directors may take any action which is within their power without a meeting by obtaining written approval of all the directors to such action.

Section 5. Action Without Meeting: Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law or these Bylaws may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of the Oregon Non-Profit Corporation Law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of directors to so act, and such statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

Section 6. Waiver of Notice: When all the directors are present at any directors' meeting, however called or noticed, or, if a majority of the directors are present, and if those not present sign in writing a waiver of notice of such meeting, whether prior to or after the holding of such meeting, which said waiver shall be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation, the transactions thereof are as valid as if said meeting had been regularly called and noticed.

ARTICLE VI - POWERS AND DUTIES OF BOARD

Section 1. General Powers: The Board of Directors shall have the right to exercise all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to the Corporation and not reserved to the membership by provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, and the Amended Protective Covenants and Conditions - Sage Meadow Subdivision.

Section 2.1. The assessment base shall be increased or decreased on January 1, 1986, and on January 1 of each year thereafter by a percentage equal to the percentage change of the Consumer Price Index from January 1, 1985.

By Consumer Price Index, it is meant the CPI-U (Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers) for cities (1967=100) as established and published by the Bureau of Labor and Statistics of the United States Department of Labor for Portland, Oregon. The CPI-U is based on the price of food, clothing, shelter, fuels, transportation fares, charges for doctor's and dentist's services, drugs, and other goods and services that people buy for day-to-day living. If, at the time required for the determination of the assessment, the CPI-U is no longer published or issued, the Board of Directors shall use such other index as is then generally accepted and recognized for similar determinations of purchasing power.

Section 2.3. Special Assessments: Prior to fixing any assessment other than the regular annual assessment described in Article VI, Section 2.2., the Board of Directors shall mail notice of its intention to assess each lot owner. The notice shall explain the purpose of the assessment, a statement of the need, a cost estimate, and the amount of the proposed special assessment against each lot. Membership approval must be obtained by ballot or by petition. If by ballot, approval of a majority of those voting is required. If by petition, the signatures of a majority of the membership is required for approval.

Section 3. Judicial Enforcement:

a. Any action or proceeding commenced to challenge or seek review of any action by the Board of Directors, including any decision, action, omission, inaction, or interpretation or application of the Protective Covenants and Conditions for Sage Meadow Subdivision made by the Board of Directors for the Architectural Committee shall be commenced against the Board of Directors. Such action and proceeding shall be the sole and exclusive remedy for any owner who seeks to challenge a decision of the Architectural Committee or Board of Directors approving, denying or modifying an application for design approval pursuant to the Protective Covenants and Conditions and the Architectural Guidelines of Sage Meadow Subdivision.

d. Nothing contained in these Bylaws, Protective Covenants and Conditions, or the Architectural Guidelines for Sage Meadow Subdivision shall require or be deemed to require the Board of Directors to take any particular action to enforce these Bylaws, Protective Covenants and Conditions, or Architectural Guidelines of Sage Meadow Subdivision, except as specifically required herein or in said Protective Covenants and Conditions or Architectural Guidelines.

The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each director and the manager or managing agent, if any, against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Directors, manager, or managing agent on behalf of the Corporation unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Protective Covenants and Conditions for Sage Meadow Subdivision filed herewith or to these Bylaws.
